Thursday
February 13
11:30 A.M. I CLC Quiet Dining Room
Lunch and Learn Series
Join USC Upstate professors as they discuss their research in life and work related to the African American experience.

Black Revolutionaries and Revolutions in the Atlantic World
Dr. Colleen O’Brien

Thursday
February 20
Coding Power: Obama and the Language of Race
Dr. Carmen Harris

Thursday
February 27
Afrofuturism: Re-envisioned Histories
Dr. Cassandra Jones

Tuesday
February 18
Black Hawk Down: An Insider’s Perspective
8 P.M. I JM Smith Boardroom
Ignite hosts James Lechner, guest speaker, as he shares his intimate experiences related to the Mogadishu raid.

Tuesday
February 25
One Voice: A Black History Narrative
6 P.M. I Tukey Theater
One Voice is a journey through the black American experience, by virtue of eight powerful and influential voices. Jeremiah Dew portrays six of the characters, spanning from the 1820s to present day, all stand-out figures in this country’s history including: Martin Luther King, Jr., Muhammad Ali, Bill Cosby, and President Barak Obama.

For more information, contact Stacey Mills at 864.503.5196.

UPSTATE